On Sunday morning, the 7th, about two o'clock, a rebei raid was made on the Penascols Navy Yard, and an attempt made to resepture Buenanan and his stall, which provided a failure. Fortunately, some 500 of the 2d Maise cavalry had but a short time before been landed from a United Stalps traceport, and were stationed in the Navy Yard. There were also two viscels guarding the bayon just back of the Navy Yard, and they assisted in repelling the attack of the rebels by shelling the woods in the visitity of where they were concealed. A signal rocket was sent up which caused the vessels lying in the Navy Yard to best to quarters, and preparations were rapidly made to myet the sitack of the enemy, which was soon made and republed.

The Desire for Peace Hypothesical.

(Fr. m the Richmond Kramine.)

As Lincoln wants peace on his own terms, so we also want peace on ours, and the terms mutually exclude and distroy such other. It is not, therefore, the same peace we desire; and the word lised bandled about in this way, loses all meaning, and significe literally nothing at all. It has become a hateful word, and should be left exclusively to the use of buffalo orators in a neighboring State, if any of that sort still drivel and enivel. Let us get rid of the whole ville cant, and say at once we are for war, and nothing not war, until, as Davis is said to have said, "the last of this generation falls in his trucks," and then that wantonly invaded our country to offer us peace. It is for those who have unjustly and wantonly invaded our country to offer us peace and when they do, they will still offer it well until their armed men sere withdrawn from the sod of those Confederate States, and the felow flay of stripes is banied do warrom every fort within our borders. After that, it will be time enough to preate about peace. Now, the very word is nonsense.
